1000Hills Debate Promoters

Introduction

1000 Hills Debates Promoters is pleased to Present to All UNIVERSITY OF RWANDA HUYE CAMPUS STUDENTS with this Oxford-style Debate project. We understand the dynamic of the Rwanda University student's skills and how your skills is contributing to the society, that why 1000 Hills Debate Promoters recognizes this unique opportunity and come up with this project to help students express their ideas through scientific discussions. Normally we believe that the university students are in the maturing stage and mostly needed by their country as their future speaker leaders, not only Rwanda but also our African continent. We are unique positioned to successfully help YOU (Students) to build your future and the better future of our country. "The Future of this continent is within our hands"

Debate style

This debate style, allow debaters to make research and studies so that to present ideas that have facts and references.

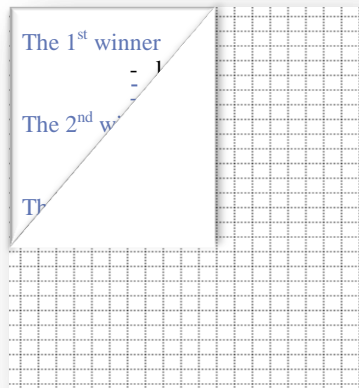

Competition

1000 Hills Debate Promoters activities focus on organizing debates from all intellectual levels starting from UR HUYE CAMPUS STUDENTS.

We will always create a dynamic competition system. By publishing the topic to debate on, Students who apply will have to pass through different selection sessions to find only the best eight ones who will participate in the open debate competition. After selection, experts team will train and give different skills related to Public speaking, Leadership styles & skills, Research technics, Project development & management and Conflict management, this is to help them to find out and express ideas that have facts and reference to what they will be presenting according to the current topic. After questions from Audience, a panel of judges will play a role to select the top three winners of the debate to be awarded.
